BIOVAIL'S AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

By alleging the matters set forth below, Biovail does not allege or admit that it has the burden of proof and/or the burden of persuasion with respect to any of these matters or that the State is relieved of its burdens to prove each and every element of its claims and the damages, if any, to which it is entitled. As and for its affirmative defenses, Biovail alleges as follows:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

145. The State fails to state a claim against Biovail upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

146. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the political question and separation of powers doctrines.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

147. The State has no standing or capacity to bring some or all of the claims raised in this suit to recover Medicaid expenditures or to seek injunctive relief.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

148. The State has not suffered, and will not suffer, any injury to a legally protected or cognizable interest by reason of the conduct of Biovail as alleged in the Complaint.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

149. To the extent the State obtains recovery in any other case predicated on the same factual allegations, the State is barred from seeking recovery against Biovail based on the Complaint pursuant to the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel, and the prohibition on double recovery for the same injury.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

150. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and the analogous provisions of the Constitution of the State of Alabama.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

151. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the filed rate doctrine.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

152. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that The State of Alabama has released, settled, entered into an accord and satisfaction or otherwise compromised its claims.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

153. Any and all actions taken by Biovail with respect to any of the matters alleged in the Complaint were taken in good faith and in accordance with established industry practice.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

154. The State's claims are preempted, in whole or in part, by federal law, including without limitation the Federal Employment Retirement Income and Security Act of 1974, the Federal Medicare Act, and the Federal Medicaid Act, including all amendments to the same and all regulations promulgated thereunder.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

155. The State's claims are preempted by the dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

156. The State's claims against Biovail are barred because Biovail has complied with all applicable regulations of the federal and state governments.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

157. The State's claims against Biovail are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations and repose, and by the doctrines of laches, estoppel and waiver.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

158. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they violate Biovail's rights under the Due Process and Ex Post Facto clauses of the United States Constitution, as well as the Constitution of the State of Alabama, insofar as the State seeks to impose liability retroactively for conduct that was not actionable at the time it occurred.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

159. Biovail's statements or actions were not the proximate cause or cause in fact of any injury to or alleged loss by the State.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

160. To the extent that the State attempts to seek equitable relief against Biovail, it is not entitled to such relief because it has an adequate remedy at law.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

161. The State's claims against Biovail for injunctive relief were mooted by the passage of the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

162. The State's claims for injunctive relief against Biovail are barred by the doctrines of in pari delicto and/or unclean hands.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

163. The State's claims against Biovail are barred, in whole or in part, due to its failure to join indispensable parties.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

164. The State's claims against Biovail are barred, in whole or in part, because it has suffered no damages as a result of the matters alleged in the Complaint.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

165. The State's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any injuries sustained by the State were the result of its own conduct or the intervening or superceding conduct of third parties.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

166. The State's claims against Biovail for damages are barred, in whole or in part: (1) because it failed to mitigate its damages, and its failure to mitigate damages should proportionately reduce the recovery of the State and the allocation of any fault, if any exists, attributable to Biovail; (2) because it would be unjustly enriched if allowed to recover any portion of the damages alleged in the Complaint; (3) by the doctrine of consent and/or ratification to the extent that the State has paid for products manufactured, marketed and sold by Biovail after the filing of the State's original Complaint; and (4) because they are speculative and remote and because of the impossibility of ascertaining and allocating of those alleged damages.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

167. Biovail is entitled to a set-off, should any damages be awarded against it, for the entire amount of all damages or settlement amounts recovered by the State, with respect to the same alleged injuries.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

168. Any damages recovered by the State from Biovail must be limited by the applicable statutory ceilings on recoverable damages, including, without limitation, Alabama Code 6-11-21.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

169. The State fails to allege facts or a cause of action against Biovail sufficient to support a claim for compensatory damages, attorneys' fees and/or legal fees, or any other relief.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

170. To the extent punitive damages are sought, the State's punitive damages claims against Biovail: (1) have no basis in law or fact; (2) are not recoverable because the allegations of the Complaint are legally insufficient to support a claim for punitive damages against Biovail; (3) cannot be sustained because the laws regarding the standards for determining liability for and the amount of punitive damages fail to give Biovail prior notice of the conduct for which punitive damages may be imposed and the severity of the penalty that may be imposed, and are void for vagueness in violation of Biovail's Due Process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Alabama; (4) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages exceeding the limits authorized by the laws or other comparable laws would violate Biovail's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and laws of the State of Alabama; (5) cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages in this case, combined with any prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent judgments against Biovail for punitive damages arising from the design, development, manufacture, fabrication, distribution, supply, marketing, sale, or use of Biovail's products would constitute impermissible multiple punishments for the same wrong, in violation of Biovail's Due Process and Equal Protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would constitute double jeopardy in violation of the Constitution, common law, and statutory laws of the State of Alabama; (6) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages without the apportionment of the award separately and severally between or among the alleged joint tortfeasors, as determined by the alleged percentage of the wrong committed by each alleged tortfeasor, would violate Biovail's Due Process and Equal Protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law, and public policies of the State of Alabama; and (7) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages, which are penal in nature, without according Biovail the same protections that are accorded to all criminal defendants, including the protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, the privilege against self-incrimination, and the rights to confront adverse witnesses, a speedy trial, and the effective assistance of counsel, would violate Biovail's rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendment as incorporated into the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law, and public policies of the State of Alabama.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

171. To the extent punitive damages are sought, the State's claims for punitive damages against Biovail cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages by a jury that: (1) is not provided constitutionally adequate standards of sufficient clarity for determining the appropriate imposition of, and the appropriate size of, a punitive damages award; (2) is not adequately instructed on the limits of punitive damages imposed by the applicable principles of deterrence and punishment; (3) is not expressly prohibited from awarding punitive damages, or determining the amount of an award of punitive damages, in whole or in part on the basis of invidiously discriminatory characteristics, including without limitation the residence, wealth, and corporate status of Biovail; (4) is permitted to award punitive damages under a standard for determining liability for punitive damages that is vague and arbitrary and does not define with sufficient clarity the conduct or mental state that makes punitive damages permissible; (5) is not properly instructed regarding the State's burden of proof with respect to each and every element of a claim for punitive damages; and (6) is not subject to trial court and appellate judicial review for reasonableness and furtherance of legitimate purposes on the basis of constitutionally adequate and objective standards, would violate Biovail's Due Process and Equal Protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and would be improper under the Constitution, common law, and public policies of the State of Alabama.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

172. To the extent punitive damages are sought, the State's claims for punitive damages against Biovail cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages that is subject to no predetermined limit, such as a maximum multiple of compensatory damages or a maximum amount of punitive damages that may be imposed, would: (1) violate Biovail's due process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; (2) violate Biovail's right not to be subjected to an excessive award; and (3) be improper under the Constitution, common law, and public policies of the State of Alabama.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

173. Some or all of the State's claims against Biovail arise from the State's failure to follow its federal and state statutory and regulatory obligation to properly establish appropriate reimbursement rates.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

174. The State's unjust enrichment claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Biovail did not retain any money belonging to the State as a result of any alleged overpayments as required under Alabama law.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

175. The State's claims against Biovail are misjoined with the State's claims against other defendants and must be severed.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

176. Biovail hereby gives notice that it intends to rely upon any other and additional defense that is now or may become available or appear during, or as a result of, the discovery proceedings in this action, and hereby reserves its right to amend its answer to assert any such defense.

WHEREFORE, defendant Biovail demands that: (1) the Complaint be in all respects dismissed as to it; (2) it be awarded its costs of defending this action, including its reasonable attorneys' fees; and (3) it be awarded such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
